Uncle Sam Sending His Sons To City To Receive Training As War Birds

By JACK DELONG
Yenkee Doodle came to town
To join our air force "fearful."
He likes the town, he loves the girls.
But says the coffee's awful!
No need to sing the old hat favorite of the last Great War "The Yanks Are Coming," because the Yanks are already here.
And if you doubt our word, get yourself the necessary credentials—by you can—and pay a visit to No. 2
R.C.A.F. training depot at the exhibition grounds. Or perhaps you've already been impressed by the large number of clean-limbed, athletic looking young men in the familiar air force blue with U.S.
insignia on their shoulders.

ALREADY IN WAR
Or if you hear that question asked again: "When do you think the United States will get into the war?" you can answer with perfect truth: "The United States is already in the war." At least 36 of the 48 states comprising that great Good Neighbor to the south of us is in this war, and if a person had the time to make a complete check he would undoubtedly learn that every one of the 48 states is represented among the airmen now in training here.

O.C. of No. 3 Manning Depot, wondered for a while just where
"the war" was "interesting."
After stating he would like to meet a few Americans the reporter was told to "go to 351 St."

state seems to be strongest between Texas and California. Some say Sunny California leads, but others say the Lone Star State is leading at present. Geographically all parts of the great republic are well represented. There's a lead from New York City in the east, New Mexico and Texas uphold the banner of the deep south, while all of the Pacific and Pacific Northwest is well represented.
OLD SOUTH IS HERE
North and South Carolina and the Virginias have brought the glamor of the last old south to Edmonton. The middle west and Oklahoma also have their representatives. The boys refer to Oklahoma as the "old buckle of the wheat belt" or the "Grapes of Wrath State."
"Anybody from Washington, D.
C.?" the reporter asked. This question was received with some good American effluvia.
"Now, that's the place they represent the politicians," no
"airmen there," was the reply.
Even Reno, Nevada, proved conclusively that it can produce something else besides served marble. There's a budding hedgehog from Reno at the manning depot. He's Gene Young, who's 26 years old, a commu-
nical fellow to his credit.

miliar to the reporter is

MOSCOW, Sept. 10.—(AP)—
The Red army reported today it had routed the 29th German infantry division in a powerful attack in the Gomel sector of the eastern front, inflicting thousands of casualties.
Gomel is about mid-way between Kiev and the Southern sector where the Russians said they had captured a strong Nazi approach from a 150-square-mile zone had dealt a heavy blow to Hitler's armies.
Red army counter-attacks in both vital sectors were undertaken by continuing full scale.
Red Star, the army newspaper,
said the sweeping counter-offensive was continuing.
MOSCOW, Sept. 10.—(AP)—
An extraordinary Soviet estimate tonight fixed German losses in the battle of Veliky at 75,000

area after the Russians had annu-lated repeated German attacks on Red army positions.

and motorized divisions, the paper said, the Germans finally being driven back. The losses were 28 tanks, 400 trucks and 135

the north, to take Leningrad quickly at any cost, military sources in Berlin said today.

How The Lease-Lend Bill Changed Hitler's Timetable For Onquest

Missing Girl's Note Says She Goes To River

Leaving a note on the dresser of her bedroom stating she was "gone to the river" and "will be back," 16-year-old Isabel Hawks has been missing from the Red house where she worked since 7:30 p.m. Monday.
An intensive police search has been in progress since employees of the hotel reported finding the note.
Parents of the Hawks girl, who lives north of the C.N.R. tracks near the Red house, are confident they will find their daughter did not carry out the act implied in her note.
The woman who employed the missing girl heard her leave her room on Monday evening. When she did not return, the woman entered her room and found the note.
The note further stated the girl
had "intended to do so long ago."
Description of the missing girl
furnished to police follows: Age 16, height 5 ft. 3 or 4 inches, slim build, fair hair, prominent teeth wearing a gauzy, fuzzy tweed coat
when last seen.

general staff and gained time for Uncle Sam. Germans appreciate the true significance of these moves better than Americans. Both were bold, both were based on a comprehension of strategy and both knocked the German timetable haywire.

The most important of the two is undoubtedly the lend-lease bill. This measure baffled the imagination of the Germans and confronted Hitler's generals, for the first time in their carefully prepared war with the likelihood of German defeat.

Indeed that likelihood seemed a certainty when my German military sources feared that it would be followed by prompt American entry into the war.

German reaction to this measure can be illustrated best

The health board previously ex-renewed.

In giving reasons for the board's decision to lift the ban Sept. 22, Dr.

Boys From Seona In Second Place

South Side Spitfires Win 6-0 Against E.A.C. Junior Gridders

Lefty Feller?

South Side Spitfires turned in a 6-0 shutout against Edmonton Athletic Club at Clarke Stadium on Tuesday night in the best game so far in the City Junior Football League and as a result moved into second place in the loop standing.

Expensive in the third quarter the powerful E.A.C. squad failed to show the same drive as they did against the Maple Leafs in the opening game of the league and they were unable to put Fred Snyder's kicking team into the field.

Coach Don Menzies and Jimmy Dean evidently have been doing their homework in the last week for their protégés were away right from the start, no doubt fired by the three goals in the first few minutes which led to a placement kick by Davidson sending the Spitfires off to a three point lead and they never let up.

Ernie Metcalf, Mervyn Smith, Dick Mercer, Jim Swan, Don McCall, Jerry Walsh and Gordon Rayner and in fact all of the South Siders were on their toes and those boys are going to take some beating in the junior loop.

MAKE YARDS SIX TIMES
In the first quarter the Spitfires drove through the heavy E.A.C. line for yards six times, while holding their opponents to two gains.

Each club moved the yard sticks in the second session and in the third quarter, Ernie Stevens crew came back to life and although they made only a pair of yards to the Spitfires, they had a decided edge on the territorial play.

Both teams made two yards one in the final 15 minutes. The Spitfires made two yards one in the final 15 minutes. The Spitfires made two yards one in the final 15 minutes.

While he is small, some suspect Brooklyn may have a left-handed Bob Feller in Vin Lombardi of Johnston club of Penn State League. Tulare, Calif., youngster struck out 193 in 117 2-3 innings, twice recording 18 strikeouts. He won 10, lost 3.

Betty Jameson Loses Bid For Third U.S. Golf Title

BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Defending Champion Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Tex., putted herself out of her dream of becoming the fifth three-in-a-row women's United States golf winner Tuesday when she lost a heart-breaking first-round match to Janet Younker of White Plains, N.Y., by a single hole.

The match, the most competitive in the starting field of 116, thus joined Mrs. Younker and three other women on the sidelines of the women's national golf championship tournament.

All those who shared the qualifying round, Jameson with Miss Younker wound up on the short end of the hole. Mrs. Younker, daughter of a Great Neck, N.Y., clubber, Grace Amory of Locust Valley, N.Y., daughter of a prominent Southern Illinois, beat Jean Bower of Providence, R.I., and Miss Sylvia Anderson of Philadelphia, N.Y., to meet Mrs. Estelle Page of Greenboro, N.C.

By going out in 37 one over par, Miss Jameson found herself four up at the turn, at her last putt opportunity used up 42 strokes on that journey. The latter, however, settled for a 37, which was a 10-hole hole-in-one.

The to serious golf and staged three birdies while coming home in 34, two under par.

Despite that, slandering finish, Miss Jameson could have survived if she retained her putting touch, when she underlaid just on the 13th green, where she dropped back on 20 strokes after taking three from 20 feet.

She then panicked Miss Younker with her winning margin by hitting her second on the 160- and 16th and then missing a 10-footer. Miss Younker, however, calmly and halved the last hole.

Brooklyn's Dynamic Dodgers Intrigue All New Yorkers

By HARRY FERGUSON
NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—(BUP)—Diary of a sports writer for one day in a town that has gone crazy on a certain subject:

8:28 a.m.—Elevator man brings up the morning papers and says, "I didn't see it but I heard it on the radio. They'll teach them Giants to get smart." Displays a headline that screams: "Dodgers win twin bill."

9:48 a.m.—Two kids on my giggle picture in paper. It shows a Dodger fan wearing a "Halloween" mask at Ebbets Field on Sunday for the game.

10:47 a.m.—Start opening mail. Man in Chicago wants two seats to all world series games, but says they won't be on the first base line. Man in Detroit wants four boys seats for all games at Ebbets Field, says he doesn't care anything about going to the games in Yankee Stadium.

COMES STRANGE VOICE

11:14 a.m.—Phone rings. It's a strange voice. I know it. It's a Dodger fan. He's playing today. Told that they have an off day and are heading west, he hangs up in disgust without a thank you.

12:10 p.m.—A cable writer, who'll cover the sports desk and take over the sports desk of the "Sun" in New York, is asked: "What do you think of them?" He says, "They're three games out in front and how's anybody going to stop them?"

12:42 p.m.—Jack Cuddy, British Union Press boxing writer, writes when Ebbets Field is empty and "Terry Moore" will be back in the Cardinals line-up.

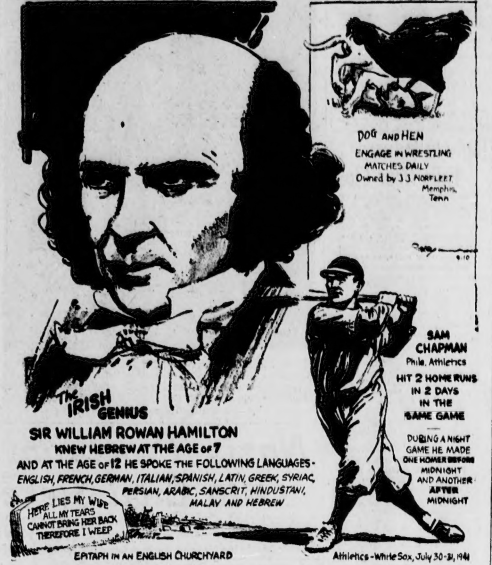

1:18 p.m.—Another cable writer comes over and says, "What do you think of those Brooklyn boys?" He, in turn, is asked: "What do you think of them?" He says, "They're three games out in front and how's anybody going to stop them?"

WOTTA MAN!

1:40 p.m.—Lunch. Walter reluctantly puts down his notes of Dodgers' Sunday games and brings vegetable soup instead of tomato.

"That Camille, wotta man!"

3:28 p.m.—Afternoon mail. Three more people want to know what are chances for getting world series tickets in Ebbets Field. Want them right back of home plate. Sports writer wonders how much it would cost to buy 15 minutes on coast-to-coast network and announce that he is not selling tickets to the world series and that there aren't any dollars except for the working press.

2:45 p.m.—First cable writer comes back to sports desk but before he can open his mouth, sports writer tells him "They're three games out in front and how's anybody going to stop them?"

3:28 p.m.—A broker who works in a brokerage office calls and wants to know how many games the Dodgers and Cardinals have left on the schedule and what teams they are playing. Says he plans to offer 7 to 1 that Dodgers beat out the Cards.

NEW MANAGER FLEES
3:35 p.m.—Miles W. Vaughn, night manager, comes over and asks whether Dodgers fans are really as screwy as everybody says they are. Shows picture of Dodger fan wearing the Halloween mask, he flies in terror to his own desk.

4:20 p.m.—Dodgers leave on special train from Grand Central Terminal and rumble of cheering can be heard all along 42nd street.

4:55 p.m.—Sports writer takes copy over to wire desk and tells Bill Dickinson, then braves him on special train from Grand Central Terminal, Dickinson says, "That Ted Williams sure can bust the old apple out of his nut!"

4:55 p.m.—Sports writer faints.

Cards Must Hit Faster Pace Now

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 10.—(AP)—The weatherman may take a slugging session at St. Louis Cardinals' National League pennant hopes if he doesn't come up with something besides rain for today's doubleheader with the eighth-place Philadelphia Phillies.

A persistent rain, beginning at noon with a windstorm, washed out yesterday's contest between the two teams and a twin bill was automatically scheduled for their next meeting of the season.

Showers and cooler winds have been forecast for today, making the outlook none too optimistic.

The Cardinals have banded on knocking off the tactic Philie tactic and cancellation of the game would be a disastrous blow. It would mean two near-certain victories but beyond recall and the Cardinals need every victory they can get.

Three games behind the league-leading Brooklyn Dodgers, they are faced with the necessity of travelling at a faster clip than they have all year if they intend to win.

Saving his left-handed bat for the all-important series with Brooklyn, starting Thursday, Manager Billy Southworth nominated Lon Warneke of no-hit fame and Harry Gumbert for mound duty against Philadelphia.

Dodgers Are Forced To Quit Under Downpour At Cubs Park

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—(AP)—The rains twice came with a vengeance to Wrigley Field Tuesday, finally washing out the Chicago-Brooklyn opener in the second inning to postpone Brooklyn's start of a western swing during which the pace-making Dodgers hope to clinch the National League pennant.

A heavy storm delayed the start of the day's battle until 50 minutes, but it finally got under way with a shaky outfield. The Dodgers with the Dodgers leading 1-0 after an inning and a half, another storm broke house like force, postponing the game for today.

In this important twin bill, Manager Leo Durocher announced he would start Kirby Hulse in the opener, following with either Newell Kimball or Luke Holder. Manager Jim Wilson of Chicago said he would come back again with Claude Pasqua, his starter yesterday, and follow up with young Paul Erickson.

Since the Dodgers have 19 games remaining on their schedule and the second-place St. Louis Cardinals have 21 (including the Philadelphia game postponed Tuesday), the weather may play an important part in the flag fight.

The Cardinals having the Dodgers have to play every game on their driving. The weather prediction for Chicago today was rain.

The Cubs, who last Thursday swept a double bill from St. Louis to knock the Cardinals into second place, could make it a hot Cardinals-Dodger battle with a twin-killing today. On the other hand, should Brooklyn lose two games, they definitely would hold the home house where they open their series Thursday at St. Louis.

Brown Bomber Rated 1-A

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—(CP)—Draft officials moved heavyweight champion Joe Louis closer to the army Tuesday. Local selective board No. 84 announced that the title holder had been re-classified tentatively in class 1-A, available for immediate military service.

A spokesman for the Cook County (Chicago) draft headquarters reported that Louis—now training for a bout with Lou Nova in New York Sept. 29—would not be inducted before October under any circumstances.

Moreover, he need not do a military service if he decides to contest the listing and convinces his draft board that he should not be placed in the 1-B bracket.

Louis, who reached the age of 27 last May 15, was not considered for his reclassification. He has 10 days in which to request a hearing on the new order, and if a decision is returned against him, he has an additional 10 days to file an appeal.

HAS DEFENDENTS
Last January the champion was put in class 3-A, the group of men deferred because of dependents. At that time he listed as a niece, a wife, his father-in-law, and his father-in-law.

His wife, Mary, filed suit for divorce last July but they were reconciled in August and she agreed to withdraw the petition. During a master in chancery's hearing on the case, Louis estimated that his net earnings averaged $50,000 annually in the last seven years. Selective service officials declined to comment on whether that testimony had any bearing on his classification.

Notice of his new class was sent to Louis by the War Relocation Authority. Louis was not in the mail. Louis was not in the mail. Louis was not in the mail.

JOE NOT APPEALING
GREENWOOD LAKE, N.Y., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Heavyweight champion Joe Louis, notified Tuesday that his draft classification had been changed to 1-A, said he would not ask the Chicago board for reconsideration.

Robbie Burns - an Honoured Name

The very name of Robbie Burns is its own inspiration to high ideals—a constant urge never to depart from the original Robbie Burns formula that made the whisky famous.

The strength and authority of Robbie Burns Whisky are tempered by the rounded mellowness of the age-old imported Scotch Malt Whisky from which it is blended. It is a man's whisky blended to a man's taste.

Dr. Sinclair Is Appointed Plans Are Made For Military Participation In Reconsecration Week

Appointments of Dr. R. D. Sinclair, B.S. (Alberta), professor of anatomy, University of Alberta, as acting dean of the faculty of anatomy for the coming year, and Dr. Robert Newton, acting president of the University of Alberta, were announced Wednesday.

Dr. Newton's announcement followed a meeting of the executive of the board of governors, held Tuesday.

Dr. Sinclair has had a distinguished academic career, first as a student at the University of Alberta and other universities and in recent years as professor of anatomy at the University of Alberta, in which he has specialized in anatomic research, research which has become especially valuable in view of the work and need required for the war effort.

Dr. Sinclair was born at Inifall and was graduated from the University of Alberta in 1911 in agriculture. Later he obtained his M.S. degree in animal anatomy from Iowa. His Ph.D. was won later from the University of Alberta. He has obtained leave of absence from his position at the University of Alberta to continue studies at the University of Alberta and to work on his Ph.D. from Aberdeen, Scotland.

Dr. Newton also announced the appointment of J. H. Brown, to be assistant assistant in entomology, a post which he has held for several years.

Mr. Brown has been on leave from the Dominion government for the last several months, carrying out investigations in the field of entomology in the province into causes and effects of parasites leading to Rocky Mountain spotted fever.

Through The Mill

Justice was tempered with mercy in city police court Wednesday after the magistrate heard a few small accidents from his empanel. The man pleaded guilty to the charge and a former employer gave him an acquittal and successful plea for mercy.

The accused had joined the army some months ago but recently received an honorable discharge for medical reasons. With two small children and a sick wife, the young man was "desperate" for money. Receiving only a few dollars a week at a temporary job, accused had been tempted to steal a few articles which he sold for a small sum.

This money he had given to his wife in order that she might continue treatment with a doctor. It was explained that the woman had refused to take more treatment unless she could pay.

In suspending sentence for 12 months, the court commented that he did so with some hesitation as "it is still their responsibility of the circumstances" and "with too many people to steal from their employers."

Accused assured him with obvious sincerity "I will never be back in court again."

Fine of $15 and costs, with the alternative of two months in jail, was sentence imposed on a man who pleaded guilty to larceny of liquor. He has a record of previous offences of a like nature.

One motorist was fined $25 and costs, with the option of serving 30 days, for dangerous driving.

May Come In Handy

Designed for use in lowering fire victims down the ladder, this slide stretcher invented by Wooster, O., fire chief may come in handy for air-raid rescue work.

Snared By Submarine Net

Laid to snag "enemy" submarines just inside San Francisco harbor, U.S. Navy submarine net ensnared lumber schooner "Daisy Gadsby," seen awaiting release.

They Survived

Last of the Middle East neutrals, Afghanistan may yet be swept into participation, active or passive, in World War II. This mountainous country controls four vital passes on the road from Russia to India. Britain already has warned Afghanistan to oust Nazis there. Faced with the problem of acceding to this demand or taking his chances with the Axis is Mohammed Zahir Shah, left, the nation's youthful (27) ruler.

Tells Of Smuggling

Ignacy Matulewski, former Polish minister of finance, arriving in New York with wife, told press that Poles had smuggled $75,000,000 in gold out of the country and by a circuitous route through Europe to France.

Double Trouble

Other day Dayton, O., 5-year-old Raymond Dailey fell down, broke his arm. Next day his dog Mike came limping home on a broken foreleg. Here they match spinta.

Prime Minister King Returns From England In Ferry Bomber

Arriving back in Canada via ferry bomber after visiting England, Prime Minister Mackenzie King was greeted at the airport by Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of justice, right, and Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of munitions and supply, extreme left. The ferry bomber which carried Mr. King back to Canada may be seen in the background.

Tandem Towed Gliders

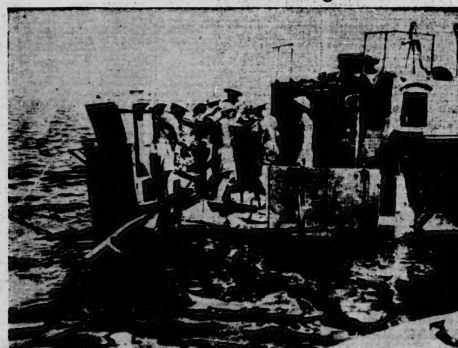

With a view toward studying value of motorless flying in the Marine Corps, two gliders, in tow of a U.S. Marine plane, take off in experimental hop in Chicago.

Fan Mah Brow

Faith Dorn fixes fan to bike, then pedals, and breezes cool her brow. Happened in Hollywood, of course.

Sunk—But Still Answering Back

The never-say-die spirit still flourishes among Anzac forces at the British "isle" of resistance at Tobruk. When the pride of Tobruk, H.M.S. Ladybird, was sunk in the harbor, it was noticed that her gun turret remained above the waterline. A gun crew was placed aboard with an anti-aircraft gun. They are still giving good account of themselves.

General Staff—On Economic Front

Franklin D. Roosevelt's recently-appointed Economic Defence Board is shown above. Left to right, seated: Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau; Vice President Wallace; Secretary of War Henry Stimson; Secretary of Agriculture Wickard. Standing: Secretary of the Navy Knox; Assistant Secretary of State Acheson; Secretary of Commerce Jones; and Acting Attorney General Biddle.

Cool Coiffure

Fierce blasts of hot winds and scratching Sahara sands won't bother this British soldier on the desert front with not new but practical hair-do.
